

A Visitation From Faustina

October 1, 2020

How wonderful is her word in season!
Well my dear Heart Dwellers, the day that I recorded this was the Feast of the Holy Archangels, and during the Lord's supper I had a lovely visit from St. Faustina. At first, I didn't think it was her, but it persisted and as soon as I wrote down the first few words, all became clear.

Saint Faustina began, "Your country is in great peril. What you have done is to draw attention to the need for this prayer. And many are listening to what you are saying, my dear friend." And the prayer she's talking about is "Blood and water from the side of Jesus, I trust in you. Save our president and our nation." And I answered her and said. "How sweet of you to come to me with this encouragement". She continued: "It is the expressed will of the Almighty that I share this progress with you. I do nothing without His permission."

"You have long been a very good friend of my heart Clare. You have taken up the standard I was born to bring into the world, and I am without words to tell you of my appreciation for the way you have spread the message and even my conversations with the Lord which so many can relate to."

"You are not unlike me dear one. I was beset by many temptations and sinful thoughts, just as you are. I struggled in my relationships with the sisters and even confessors and priests. I had many storms in my life and looking back it seems that my entire life was one great storm from start to finish. But thanks be to God, He accomplished all that I came to do. He did not belabor my faults, rather He ran to my rescue, to lift me up and show me the way. So, you see we are not so different. You too come from the influence of the Eastern European culture, (now that's Prague) and there are places where our blood lines intersect. So, you see there are many forces at work in your apostolate for Our Mother of Mercy."

"The essential prayer of that devotion is, "Merciful Father, grant us more time, more grace, more mercy." Yes, and we say that, uh, along with the Divine Mercy prayer, at the end of each decade. She continued:" You remember when I visited your prayer group in Florida, I told you how very pleased I was with that prayer. Truly, you were guided by Heaven and this exclamatory prayer has done much to intervene in the affairs of men around the world...bringing in greater elements of Mercy. You have no idea what your 'little' contribution has done. But this you will learn of in Heaven."

"What is most important here is that the prayers for mercy continue in even greater volume, intensity and focus. There is little time left and you must stress the need for charity in the coming months and repentance of the selfishness and vanity that marks your culture. God will take notice of those who repent for their excesses, and this will increase the protection of your country and even individual Americans."

"It is written in the Scriptures, over and over again, that Our Heavenly Father cares for those who care for the poor. Charity to them is also a mark of those predestined for salvation. This is by far one of the most potent defenses against evil of every form. Some in your country have a real heart for the poor around the world and evangelization. They have been part of the shield that has restrained annihilation of this land. This has also made you a great target for the enemy, but God never permits the fullness of what the devils intend to do, because of the charity and prayers of this nation." Dear saint of God, what can I do to help this message reach more souls? She continued:" You have been slandered in many circles and this has hindered your apostolate, but in the end, truth has the anointing and carries the victory. So, pay no heed to the criticisms that are spoken against you, they treated our Lord in this way as well. You are in good company Clare. But use the means you have to propagate this message, especially through social media."

"Continue to feed the flock Clare, God will bring the increase because you have been faithful and not altered the truths entrusted to you. You have much influence with those who dwell in His Heart, entreat them to spread the devotion. Dear Clare, you will overcome your faults, the ones you are so concerned about with His unending help, you will surely overcome them." Thank you for your tender words of encouragement in prayer. She replied: "Know that I stand with you. Call upon my intercession more frequently. I am here for you."

You Will Have My Peace

October 3, 2020

The Lord is with us my sweet family. He is leading and protecting us and today He wanted to speak about Peace...the Peace that passes all understanding.

"My people, you don't need Me to tell you how turbulent the times are. However, you do need to come before Me in the Blessed Sacrament to keep your peace. If you do not have access to the tabernacle, make an altar in a quiet corner and use a photograph of Me being exposed in the monstrance. There is also live adoration on the internet. And if you have a consecrated host, or a blessed host, you indeed have Me with you. I will stop at nothing to make sure that you have what is needed to bring you into My Eucharistic presence. Keep Me covered when you are not in adoration." This is respectful. "And even if you only have a photo, I will be with you in a powerful way."

"These times are turbulent and unsure and that is why We are praying so fervently for the right things to be done, for protection for your president, and for exercising your right to vote. It would be easy for you to respond to civil unrest when it takes place near you, but I am pleading with you, do not get involved in these fabricated issues that inflame those who don't know any better."

"Tell your younger ones, "You are being played by a ruthless shadow government that wants to destroy your life and even rid you from the planet." Tell them these issues are almost completely fabricated and acted out by professional crisis actors, hired just to mislead the public into thinking there is some kind of civil rights issue. These people who are supposedly killed by law enforcement, have appeared many times before in the other crisis roles for the government". On that note, I want to mention that the Boston Marathon had the same crisis actors as the incident in Minnesota, and you can look at them closely and see that the same pair worked together in the Boston Marathon as well, which was also a False Flag event. Jesus continued, "These are called Psy-Ops. In other words, how to manipulate a crowd to go wild and stir up trouble. How to play you. It's all about how to play you and make you do their bidding, which right now is to take down the people who are standing for Christian values, protecting religious freedom, and so many other freedoms that it would make you very sick to see the depths of their depravity". In other words, how to manipulate a crowd to go wild and stir up trouble. How to play you. It's all about how to play you and make you do their bidding, which right now is take down the people who are standing for Christian values, protecting religious freedom, and so many other freedoms that it would make you sick to see the depths of their depravity.

He continued, "Much of what they do originates in secret ceremonies dedicated to Satan. He is their leader; he is the one calling the shots. Baal is just as alive now as he was 3,000 years ago when people were offering their babies as sacrifices in red hot cauldrons. Abortion is today's red-hot cauldron. These shadowy people do unspeakable things to children, My people, and actually consume their bodies in mock ceremonies, mocking My sacrifice of My Body and Blood which I did once and for all for you."

"I want you to know that because you pray, because you come to Me for strength and protection, you have nothing to fear. I am taking this evil empire down because of your continued passionate prayers. Those around you though, are still quite naive and have no idea how they are being manipulated. I want you to tell them. Tell them to research Hillary Clinton's history with Satanism, torturing of children, and eating their flesh. It sounds unbelievable doesn't it? But it is real and the sooner those who have been led astray by the lying media, which is an arm of propaganda being guided by these unholy influences, the sooner they will understand perfectly what is actually going on and how they are being played. And used. For their own ends."

Lord, do you really want to tell all this?

"It is time for My people to wake up and look deeper. There is no easy way to declare what is going on. My main concern, Clare, is that this nation is divided by a phantom concept, not real issues. These conflicts that are acted out by crisis actors paid by the shadow government, have tricked so many into believing they are real and they once more need to stand up for their rights and get even violent to pay back the offenders. All of this is psychological manipulation, playing on youth who have bitterness from frustrations in life and an axe to grind. This too is how Satan fuels the violent Muslim groups."

"I Am the God of Love, not the God of Chaos. Understand, My people, you are being manipulated and used to usher in a cruel and ruthless government when you play into their hands. The lying media has fed the nation lies, slander and gossip about anyone who is leading the people into true freedom. Once more, when you believe and repeat these things, you are lying, you are spreading gossip that destroys. In short, you are deep in sin and your agreement with this slander has opened the door for the demons to sift you in your personal life. Slander and gossip are serious sins that can lead to the death of your soul. To listen to that, agree with it, pass it on, does serious damage to your soul and the souls of those you love and those around you."

"But I want to talk to you about maintaining your peace as things heat up. He who dwells in the shadow of the Almighty shall be protected. Pray Psalm 91 over your families every day. Know that as you spend time with Me, I share My Heart, My Peace and My protection with you. You may not feel it, but My Grace is infusing you at these times. One thing you will feel after adoration with Me, is a certain sense of calm and confidence that you are in My hands, and I approve and love you."

"I want you to walk as peaceful giants among men. Even in the midst of chaos, I want the peace of your heart and countenance to radiate and touch those around you. But you must stay away from the lies and slander and abide by the truth. You will be noticed, when others are going off on fearful tangents, and you keep your peace, they will begin to see that I Am in control and those who rest in Me will have the peace that passes all understanding. Go now, My dear people, and stand up for the truth and for what is right. Do not get involved in volatile situations. Pray without ceasing, especially pray "Blood and water from the side of Jesus, I trust in you. Save our president and our nation". I am with you to give you the grace you need to conquer the temptation to fall into fear, doubt and other negative emotions. Remember that this peace comes from abiding with Me and in Me.

What Will The Great Warning be Like

October 5, 2020

My dear family, we have talked a lot about judgement and the consequences of our sins, both personal and national, and it brings with it the sting of fear and punishment. My precious dear ones, God is not quote, "dealing with us" unquote because of our sins. He is trying to guide us as a loving Father, away from our sinfulness. To that end He allows us to suffer a tiny portion of consequences and holds back the full force of what is really due to our sins. This is not punishment; it is loving guidance. Just like we used for our sheep when they tried to avoid the sheep pen at night, we made steering fences to funnel them into the protection of the sheep fold because cougars, bears and coyotes, would kill them if they were not sheltered.

Mike from Around the World made a very good point. He believes that God has allowed the fires in California to get people to move out of the state before it is too late for them. So many know the big one is coming, but they ignore it and keep living there. Just because we belong to Jesus does not mean we are exempt from injury or loss of life when it happens. What it does mean is that our destination is Heaven, but we may have to suffer intercessory suffering just before we get there.

I would also like to add that another one of his prophecies talked about 3 nukes hitting the east coast. I have seen these nukes in visions and dreams, and so has Ezekiel, but I believe they are being held back in order to bring more people to repentance. I also believe that the Lord has allowed New Yorkers to suffer from the virus because they backed abortion. Dear ones, when one is on the verge of death, they begin to think about where they will go when they die. Hopefully, they will consider that there may be a Heaven and a Hell. This virus is bringing people to their senses as never before.

But I also believe that as we pray against the nukes and the fireballs from Heaven, God in His great Mercy, His incomprehensible mercy, holds them back and gives us more time, more grace, more mercy. This I believe is why we are not in a meteor storm or recovering from fallout on the East Coast.

I also believe that there will come a time when Father God will no longer contend with the sons of men, but He will permit justice to stop those fully committed to evil, those who have refused His invitations time after time, those who could care less about murdering others as part of a political agenda. I believe the Lord will do all He can do to reach them, but the door of mercy will begin to close. This is what the great tribulation is all about.

I think some people feel a certain satisfaction and self-righteousness when they talk about what this nation has coming to it. That is not Father's heart at all. He allows these things to direct us back to prayer and reliance upon Him and conversion. Repentance and conversion. He allows the consequences of our sins to manifest in only a tiny portion because He loves us and wants us to change our ways which are only damaging to ourselves and others who are innocent.

I used to be one of those who got a sense of self-righteousness when I heard of catastrophes and loss for people who were in sin. I used to think God is a righteous God...and they will get what is coming to them. But the Lord has revealed the deep pride of a hardened heart and ignorance of my own sins, that caused me to rejoice, even if only secretly in my heart, when declaring judgment would come to a person or town. Mostly that attitude came from me feeling puffed up, self-righteous, and a messenger of doom sent straight from God to declare how He would destroy and punish them. I was self-righteous and didn't sin like they did, therefore I felt smug in warning that judgement was coming to them. I wasn't concerned about their welfare, I didn't love them, I was only concerned in seeing the prophecies of gloom and doom land and destroy them, just like Jonah.

What comes to mind immediately is the tower at Siloam that collapsed and killed eighteen people. Jesus corrected that attitude among His disciples by asking them, "Or those eighteen who were killed when the tower of Siloam collapsed on them: Do you think that they were more sinful than all the others living in Jerusalem? No, I tell you. But unless you repent, you too will perish."

I want to share with you how the Father brought me out of a state of deep sin, before I ever knew Jesus. I was 33 and had just given birth to my first child while living with the man that I would later marry, out of God's will. I had been searching for truth since my teens and I was not satisfied with the answers I got from different clergy. So, I began to delve into the supernatural. A lot of things made perfect sense and I felt like I had found the hidden world I had been seeking, but a prevailing sense told me that I still did not have the whole truth.

That was until one night when the Holy Spirit descended from Heaven into my physical body and I was overtaken by a power far greater power than anything I had ever known in the New Age. This experience was totally out of the realm of this earth as we know it, and I knew, suddenly without anyone teaching me, this was a visitation from the Holy Spirit of God.

During that 45 minutes, that my body was wrapped in a paralyzing ecstasy. I could not move, however my husband at that time said, "What's going on, you are glowing." I was able to answer him even though I had no knowledge of these things before. During that time, I was wrapped in Divine Love, something so secure, so profound and extatically joyous, that I have no words that adequately describe it. Everything was brilliant white like lightening, even though my eyes were closed, and I began to see all the sins of my life and feel deep remorse. When that ended, I felt encompassed and infused in the most gentle, forgiving, profound love I had ever experienced, I knew it was a taste of Heaven, and sent from God, and not a familiar spirit. And even though my sins were horrible, I felt wonderful and clean and born again. My whole perspective changed, and I knew that I was loved more than I ever imagined was possible.

All I wanted to do was to cover my head, get a Bible and read it from cover to cover, and find out Who this wonderful God is. I didn't know yet that Jesus was the second person of the Holy Trinity, that was revealed to me during the televised version of Jesus of Nazareth. During the incident I also began to recite Psalm 51, even though I did never read it or heard it before...

Have mercy on me, O God,

according to Your loving kindness.

according to Your great compassion, blot out my transgressions.

Wash me clean of my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.

For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me.

Against You, and You only, have I sinned

and done what is evil in Your sight,

Let me hear joy and gladness; and let the bones You have crushed rejoice.

Hide Your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquities.

Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from Your presence.

And take not Your Holy Spirit from me.

Oh, how I begged Him not to cast me away from His Presence, I had never felt so alive and wonderful in my life. I was literally swimming in the waters of life and all I wanted was to stay there forever.

Dear ones, I did not arrive at that place of conversion because of threats of punishment! I was just blessed with a beautiful daughter. I was healthy, and things were going well. I was studying the New Age at that time, the Mayan Tarot deck, under a copper pyramid and smoking marijuana every night, searching out the mysteries of the universe.

It was His overwhelming love that won me over, not some preacher pounding me with how judgement was coming and how God was going to punish me. People who approach others that way are not giving an accurate rendering of who Jesus Christ or God the Father is.

That is the old testament God of fire, brimstone, and wrath which I believe God will only use as a last resort among those who have repeatedly rejected a relationship with Him. Jesus came to do away with that image of God and reveal through His own Person that the Father is deeply in love with us, so much so that He permitted His only son to take on the punishment for all our sins and be crucified in our place.

And here I want to talk about the Great Sign and Moment of Inner Vision, which was told to the four children in Garabandal in 1961.

The Warning is described as a momentary stopping of time around the world, with all people then seeing the spiritual condition of their souls, and how they should amend their ways. Within a year of the Warning, a miracle will take place. The miracle will leave a permanent sign in Garabandal, which can be seen and photographed, but not touched. The "miracle" will occur between March and May. The "punishment," or "chastisement," is conditional upon how humankind reacts to the preceding "warning" and "miracle." And that's from Wikipedia

I believe that I experienced that moment of inner vision that night when I was saved. I believe that's exactly what the Warning is going to be like. And

I have to say, yes, my sins were shown to me, but the overwhelming grace and revelation I received was of God's tremendous love for me, even when I was in sin. We can find judgement and criticism anywhere, what the lost hunger for is love. Lord, would you like to add anything?

Jesus began, "Yes, I do, and it is very important in this context. You have heard much doom and gloom, prognostications of nuclear holocaust, asteroids, tsunamis, and plagues. What I am here to tell you is that these measures are not retribution, they are not My Father scourging you from Heaven. They are attention getters. They are allowed to cause you to go deeper in your lives, from just living, success and career, to looking at where you will go when you die."

We are trying to get your attention, and especially the attention of the lost. We are for you not against you. The calamities that have been allowed are the partial consequences of sin lived out on the earth. Many of these things you have caused directly, other things were inevitable. But above all natural events and occurrences is the love that we have for you, our deep love for you and the desire to see you living in Eden on this earth, and to this end We want a relationship with you, We want you to come to US expecting to receive help."

"Part of that help is in the form of obeying the commandments and living according to the rules of success We've given you. Not the success of an overflowing bank account, but the success of living in joy, peace, harmony and happiness, the joy of seeing others around you prospering as well. Get rid of that punishment mentality, my people, and realize the profound love we have for you and Our desire to have a relationship with you, imparting grace day after day to live a good life. But as things are now everything is out of balance; mankind has lost the ability to live life and Satan has taught him how to destroy it. This state is what We are trying to rectify.

When you see your children destroying important things that were given to bring them happiness, do you not step in and remove those things from them? Do you ignore the damage they are doing and how they are hurting others as well as themselves, or do you call a halt and explain to them the proper way to behave? That is what is happening every time We allow something difficult in your life and in the world."

"My heart, people, is full of love and concern for you. Even in the littlest things, I intervene. Sometimes it is a parking place, other times you run into someone that needs you, or it could even be the very last slice of Tiramisu in the store. Yes, I love you even down to the littlest detail and for that reason We are trying to bring you home, safely, back to sanity in an insane and demonically oppressed world. Even now, the actions We take are for your ultimate good. So please come to understand, in this hour We need you to repent of those things that are not pleasing to Us, those things that are a culture of death, not life, those things that tear apart the moral fiber of your children and family. Come to Me beloved ones...truly My love for you knows no limitations and I will give you the graces needed to overcome sin in your lives. Reach out to others and pass on the message...a repentance of love...repent because you are loved, and I want to bless your life not end it. Repent because when you live in My love, by My rules, you will have great peace. Begin today to pray, ask forgiveness and take new steps forward leaving behind your old life of sin."

"I love you, I wait for you, and want to infuse you with so much joy...a joy that no one can take from you, a joy that is not dependent on your circumstance, a joy that gives you strength to run the race to the finish line. Oh, come to Me, please dear ones, I have so much favor to bestow upon you. You in turn have only to spend time with Me, pour out your heart and know that I am listening and even responding. When you write in your journal to Me, listen after each thought you write down, and then write whatever you hear. You will be surprised to find that I do speak to you, and I care deeply. I am always with you, but you must learn to always be with Me."

Stay By Me My Bride, Comfort Me

October 7, 2020

May the Lord Jesus be your comfort dear heart dwellers. This is a time when He is also asking for your comfort, your company, and your caring. Please remember to keep Him company in the Blessed Sacrament as much as you can.

Even if it is only an image of the Blessed Sacrament. We now have 24-hour adoration on the mountain, and I cannot tell you the peace that has been imparted to this community, it is supernaturally calm. Lord, I am here how can we serve You dear Jesus.

Jesus began, "Your country is headed into precarious times as there are many events lined up to come into fruition. These are things that are designed to wake up a sleeping church Clare. They are not designed to ruin your nation but to wake her up from a long complacent slumber.

As more news comes out about the heinous crimes of elected officials, thought to be good people, the public will lose much confidence in public servants. There will be increases in violence around the country as the enemy tries to overthrow this nation. Understand, no matter how it looks on the outside they are still hellbent on destroying America's freedom. It is only a matter of time, and it is your prayers My faithful ones that are stopping this from happening, which is the beginning of the tribulation.

Before that comes, there will be wake up calls and many will respond looking to Me for answers. This is what I want to encourage, come to Me and I will give you answers. I will comfort and strengthen you so you may find your joy in Me and in Heaven.

Yes, I am in agony in this hour. Several of our community members have seen the Lord in agony and I have felt it. "Yes, I am in agony at this hour. You must continue to cover your president because he is still at very high risk for being assassinated. All the countries that have joined in with him, fighting the same force that has been in control of your country, all of them are also at a high risk of losing those who side with your nation. I am speaking with you Beloved, please, put your hand in Mine and walk forward in confidence that it is Me, because you asked, I will not give you a snake when you asked for a fish. There have been several attempts to silence you and block your ability to hear from Me. That is one reason why you have found it so hard."

"But I assure you, down in your heart, in a place the enemy cannot inhabit, I speak to you as one friend to another. It was no mistake that I gave you the Rhema card about speaking to you as through a cloud, as I did with Moses. I brought that to light to increase your confidence. There have been many blows and tactics to interfere with your vision and hearing." Dear Lord, I am begging you to deliver me from this place, please deliver me from this darkness, silence, and lack of inspiration. Nothing appeals to me except being with You and hearing from you. I am feeling so very insecure right now. Jesus replied, "This is the work of the enemy and you must pray against it." I am asking You to please deliver me, please?

I have given you tools and weapons, you must use them, but not alone, call upon the others to pray for you and I will honor this. I want this community knit together in common prayer that heals and delivers one another and sets them free because attacks are frequent."

As to the reasons for My agony in these hours, tremendous is the war in the Heavens over this earth, and much intercession is needed to keep things intact. Understand that as the Planet X continues to draw near, there is much magnetic upheaval that affects every area of life. And that is not to mention the potential for deathly earthquakes. I see the little children living in the villages that will be affected, even those in Los Angeles, I love each precious little one more than I could ever communicate to you. That goes also for their mothers and fathers and every soul that will be caught in catastrophes.

Lord is the quake eminent?

He answered, "It surely is. The question is, because of those who have prayed for the people, how merciful it will be for these souls. I have been holding this back for such a very, very long time. But it is reaching the critical point. In this moment, only grace is holding it in place. There are those who manipulate these things with technologies as well, and they are bent on the destruction of your nation."

"Wars, rumors of wars, famines, pestilence, Oh Clare don't you see how tragic these times could easily become overnight, and yet with every passing day, give thanks for what didn't happen. When they do happen, these events will overcome the peace and security of all. I see all the potentials for sorrow, and I see the course humanity is heading in, and it is terrifying. Yet there will be saints and over comers. There are already unknown saints scattered throughout your nation, and they are praying for others regardless of their own needs.

"I know you are very tired...may I rock you to sleep? Will you rest in My arms and stay close to Me? Yes, guys I was falling asleep. "Will you allow Me to draw you tenderly into My heart of Hearts for humanity? Let Me hold you securely, reassuring you of My love, beyond all comprehension. Do this for Me? Please? Know that it is I, your love that comforts you, and you bring great consolation to My heart...when you stroke My hair and look deeply into My eyes. I feel so loved. Heed this message but fall into My arms for comfort. Yes, I am with you Beloved, I am here for you even as you have asked me to be. So, relish and cherish these moments set apart for us. Please relish them."

"And for all of you tender heart dwellers, those of you who grieve for the direction humanity is taking, those of you who grieve for lost sinners and cry out for loved ones and this nation...you too I cherish, you too I wish to hold in My arms and comfort. You have made yourselves a part of the plight of this nation, you have carried Simon's cross to the summit of Calvary, now I wish to comfort and strengthen you, for tortuous times are ahead for humanity. It is you who calm My heart, ease My burdens and lift from me the weighty bitterness that indifferent humanity has flung upon their God."

"So I ask you, never leave Me alone, always comfort Me, always be a Veronica wiping the perspiration from My bleeding brow. Grave are the torments I suffer for those who will be lost, but your kindness is a healing salve applied to My wounds, your prayers dull the sharp pains of rejection and scorn leveled against those prophets who cry out for repentance. Stay by My side My Bride, I need your comforting touch and prayers. Please do not forget to keep Me close for adoration, even as I explained to you recently, for you will find your peace there with Me."

The Scales Are Not in Our Favor

October 8, 2020

The Scales Are Not in Our Favor

October 8th, 2020

My dear Heart Dwellers, the Lord is continuing to ask for prayers for our nation and the world.

He began, "My very little ones, I call you that because you are pressing in to learn humility and sacrifice. How greatly I desire souls with a heart for sacrifice, as well as souls who care not whether or not they are recognized by people, because their hearts are only for pleasing God.

You will find that as intercessors and victim souls, you will not get very much encouragement.--For this reason, I meet you in the secret place to bring you deeper into My heart."

Today after I received the Lord in communion, He became so very clear and just wanted to hold me close to His heart. How peaceful and fulfilling is this only place in the universe where My Love is. So, I lingered there, I got sleepy and laid down. I bet none of you can relate to that, right?! But felt refreshed in only a few minutes, and I got up for the 'night shift' as I call it. And I just want to take a very short moment to tell you, that periodically you are going to have to break the curses that are put on this channel at times, people on this channel to block them hearing from the Lord and from block that very intimate connection that we have with Him. I had the community pray over me and it lifted. So, if you are experiencing a long, dry spell and it's not a sacrifice but something else is going on, and it's really hard to tell the difference. Please have some anointed person pray over you and make sure that they haven't put some kind of a block over your mind in that area so making it difficult for you to hear and see the Lord clearly, because this does go on quite a bit. And when you are on this channel, I'm sorry to say, you are a target. So please keep up with that.

Jesus continued, "These times when I put you into a state of rest are most important to you." And by that He was referring to me laying down for a few moments. "After you have received Me in communion, it is time to rest and give thanks for My presence in your heart, mind and body. There is much power in the Eucharist received in faith, drawing upon My strength to keep going and stay in My will. These are good prayers Clare and I am pleased with them." And that's what I have been praying lately is Lord please keep me in Your will, Your mind, what You want.

"While the fate of this president," He continued, "Your nation and the world are suspended, I want you to all do as much as you can to tilt the scales in favor of saving him. The prayer I have given you and confirmed is very short and seemingly insignificant, but much more powerful than you are able to understand.

The Life is in the blood, and you have taken the Blood of God and applied it to your president and nation. This blood obliterates not only sin, but evil intentions as well, plans to assassinate him are still in the works, and your sincere prayers are needed. It is a question of how many will join you in these prayers. The most wonderful thing that could happen to you and this nation as well as the world, is the victory of Donald Trump over the swamp.

Those who believe they are supporting honest people who are fighting against him have been brainwashed by the propaganda machine for a communist one world government. When they come to understand the true intentions and heinous activities this system has been involved in, they will want nothing to do with them. Even those souls that have chosen same sex partners, have seen the light. Freedom is the bottom line, not freedom to oppress but freedom to live and pursue what each soul believes is for their betterment.-- --

Many times, you must let others go their own way to discover truth in their lives. Suppressing them is NOT the answer. I suppress no one, unless they are hell bent on injuring others, then I do suppress. But for those who are searching, it is wrong to suppress them. When people come to Me, they come of their own will, because the Father Called them. This wicked underground government wants to enslave people to their own ideologies and thereby strip away their freedom. This is why many are turning from that ideology and joining ranks with your president who is bent on defending freedom.-- --

My Dear one, in this moment, not enough souls are praying, please do all you can to enlist them to pray for your nation and president. Life as usual has obscured the urgency of this moment and I am calling My people to apply themselves to prayer for their president and nation. I very much approve of this prayer, "Blood and water from the side of Jesus, I trust in you. Save our nation and our president." I also very much approve of you putting up a chaplet like that and I will give you a melody Beloved."

Thank You, Lord, for this is something I truly want to do.

"And we shall do it together."

Dear Family, we need more prayer, much more prayer. We are not giving enough prayer and we've got to stay focused. Not only up until the election, but even after the election. They want to assassinate him so badly. Please, please don't let down on your prayers!

The Lord bless you family and keep you in His peace and diligence.

I Am Restoring Your Faith

October 10, 2020

The Lord's peace be with you dear Heart Dwellers. This morning when I was on my way to pray, the Lord rushed upon me with this message, so I'll go ahead and go right into it. He began:

"Beloved, you cannot hide from Me the doubts that assail you. You cannot keep secret, the fears that haunt you about your future. Nothing in your being, all your insecurities, doubts and fears are in plain sight to Me as I gaze upon your wonderful soul.

"Why do I call your soul wonderful? Because even as it is written that your body is fearfully and wonderfully made, it is nothing compared to the intricacy and delicacy of your eternal soul. Your body, personality, thoughts, are merely passing shadows of the wonders hidden within you. There is truly no way I can spell them all out to you.

But take for instance the proverbial onion. The outside has a dry wrinkly skin, but beneath that is a layer that is full of moisture and flavor. Imagine if you can, that your soul is like this very large and aromatic onion. The dried-out skin is what most perceive is you. Until they pierce the surface, then the layer of onion gives off its strong aroma. Within that one layer of the onion are millions of cells, each one of them are architectural wonders and that is in only one layer.

But you My soul, have many layers with millions of cells that make up your being. There are endless worlds of wonder hidden in each one of those cells of only the outer layer. But imagine if you can, progressing through each of those layers, each a microcosm of wonder filled with ideas, talents, understanding, motivation, discovery, on and on and on. You are so intimately connected to your Creator because you are made in My image. Therefore, wondrous things are hidden within you.

I alone know the most fitting destiny for you who I have created. I alone know the content and timing of release for each of these microcosms and their unique gifts. You live in a world of paper thin onion skins, but when you hand over your life to Me, to do with as I see fit, I prepare you according to the hidden gifts that will in time and cultivation be released to bring truth and beauty to the world.

When you compare yourself to other onions, who very often have not gone beyond the second layer of skin, you limit your perspective to what THEY are capable of even in their limited awareness of what I have equipped them with. However, when you hand your life over to Me, dreams begin to manifest and as you become aware of them, we together make them a reality, until we have totally exhausted that layer of the onion.

As we complete one layer, you are filled with uncertainty and fear about what the future will bring. You did not do this to yourself on your own, the enemy of your soul plied you with lies, day after day after day, sometimes without you even being aware that this was going on. Very few of your negative thoughts come from you alone, no, the demons stand by and feed you crippling lie after lie. After a while you are fearful of the next step in your life and are prone to cling to the exhausted layer you just lived through.

"But when you take My Hand, trusting in Me completely, I walk you into a new world of wonder waiting for you. As you are emerging from the former layer you begin to perceive the wonder of this new world with all its possibilities. I reveal to you the gifts that I am bringing you into the fulness of, and at the same time the enemy tries to inspire you with fear and insecurity so you will run back to the old world for comfort.

This in fact is what happens when you start eyeing the beauty around you, Clare, for the purpose of photographing it. That was the old world. You mastered that. It is familiar, even easy. But what I have for you in the here and now is much more substantial and glorious than your past. That is why I ask you to leave those things behind. I do not wish for you to get entangled in them when I am bringing you into a new anointing for My Kingdom on earth."

And it's interesting that He said that because the fall leaves here are absolutely spectacular. And I just couldn't walk from one place to another without taking all kinds of pictures. I mean, it has been absolutely breathtakingly beautiful every time I turn around, so there's a reason why He's addressing this to me right now. Now music, on the other hand, that is a challenge. He continued.

"So, I ask you to let go of the old and make room for the new, Beloved. Yes, enjoy the splendor of what surrounds you, but do not get roped into going back to that attachment which will only inhibit the work of the present time. Enjoy, detach, move on. I have much greater things in store for you. Keep praying for your president and the world, especially this nation. Keep praying and spread the word...I am doing a new thing in your life and the lives of those Heart Dwellers who are willing to lay down the old to have the new, which will be far more relevant and important in their lives.

Even what awaits you on this Earth, in this World will be a glorious surprise to you. No more unbelief. Believe and I will bring it about. Believe and obey, that's the ticket, for you and for all. Believe in those dreams and obey, do what is necessary to walk into them and own them. I am leading you gently, my still small voice speaks to you constantly, embrace it, do not assign it as being your own thoughts or fleshly motives, rather recognize, it IS Me Beloved ones. As always ask for My assistance and you shall have it.

Because I look upon you through the eyes of Mercy, I see the forces aligned against you. I see how you have fought valiantly against them. And I see when you feel overcome and shamed by them. It is then when you need Me the most. It is then when I want you to run to Me, close the door behind you and confess these feelings without shame. For I do not shame you, I do not inoculate you with guilt, this is the work of demons. They inject that guilt, sometimes it is even so vague that you cannot find the words to fight it.

Sometimes it is so pervasive and has been infused in you since childhood, that you have no way to fight it.

You have no way, but I do. I am standing by with the remedies to restore you to the fullness of a soul that is under no condemnation because I took it all upon Myself. This weighty slime is invisible to you most of the time but causes a certain heaviness and feeling of uncertainty which causes you to doubt and halt in your journey along the way with Me. These are the times to come to Me Beloved and get these things off your chest. Yes, I will take all of this from you, but be not afraid. Trust Me Beloved. Trust Me. I will deal with these attacks against your character and Mine. Let Me lift this from your shoulder beloved. The battle belongs to Me."

I have taught you and they have denounced you and tried to negate My teachings. Therefore, I will deal with them even as one who barges into the wedding chamber unannounced. For this work is My work, and these words are My words.

Be assured then, that there is new life waiting to burst upon you as you press in despite the lying voices of condemnation from the enemy. I am your source, I am your covering, I am your defense. Speak and move forward boldly for the joy that is set before you, even in THIS world, is nigh upon you. That is why you continue to get this same Rhema over and over again."

Yes, this Rhema kept coming up, and you've probably gotten it too, off the website and it says, "Much more to come!"

I wondered why you kept giving me that Lord?? He answered,

"Yes, you can be obtuse...even when I repeat Myself." He smiled and then continued.

"Do not allow these crippling forces of unbelief to hinder you any longer. Know for certain that when you feel insecure and question My words to you, you are under attack. Let this river of life flow through you unhindered, Clare, for I have much to share with My People."

"And I speak the same words of encouragement to you who are listening...there is still much to do on this earth, prepare yourselves for action. Now we are in a time of intercession that is vital to your future, but the time may come when you feel a whole new lease on life. Press into prayer, cover your president. Truly you hold both his and your destiny in your praying hands."

When I Fell

October 13, 2020

God bless you, precious Heart Dwellers. I want to share some interior things about me with you today in hopes that you'll avoid the trap that Satan has set for you every single day. Some of you who are born Catholic will probably be able to relate to this. In the twentieth chapter of John twenty-third verse, the Lord says: Whoever sins you forgive, they are forgiven, and whoever's sins you do not forgive, their sins have not forgiven them.

So, I have noticed that when I really wanted to feel clean and I had repented for my sins and then went to confession, based on what the Scripture says about confession, I would come out feeling wonderful. Then within one half hour to an hour, something would happen to make me lose my peace. True it's my fault, but the point I want to make is that Satan can't stand to see a soul cleansed. They are a threat to his kingdom of darkness.

So yesterday I had a wonderful breakthrough with the Lord but last night I was not vigilant, and I felt very badly about what I had done. I woke up this morning feeling very contrite. The Lord didn't waste any time convicting me, but then He forgave me, yet the stain upon my soul as I perceived it would not go away. So, I felt very badly. Very down on myself, and condemnatory, calling myself all kinds of ugly names, and being derogatory. I went to pray and immediately the Lord began speaking,

"This has been done to stop you. Do not stop, keep on going Clare, I am still with you. Yes, make amends but do not collapse under the weight of condemnation. This is how the demons do this to you. This is the sequence of events. You are drawn into something seemingly innocent, and you get caught in a trap out of curiosity or over doing it. They make you feel good while it is going on. You go to bed and the next morning, they lower the boom." "You've been utterly rejected and do not deserve to teach what you yourself cannot live up to". Well guys, that's one reason why I'm so open with you. "So, then you repent, confess, and are absolved, but the pain and torture of your fall continues as they cause you to fall in upon yourself. Then come the accusations that you've been given over to lying spirits. Isn't this the way it always happens?"

Yes, Lord It is, just the way You described.

He continued, "Did I not just absolve you and did you not make a firm purpose of amendment as well as make up for your indiscretion?"

Yes Lord, I think so.

"Do you see how they play you, targeting your weakest points? And now you feel dejected. Did I not tell you just a few moments ago, "Stand your ground, this storm too will pass"? Yeah, He gave me a card I pulled from my card file. Can you do this for Me?" Jesus added." I am running you through drills to make you stronger, so you do not lose the precious graces I have imparted to you. Don't you see, Clare, this tactic is commonly used on all who are committed to Me. They are brought to shame by their weaknesses. Well no more! No more I tell you! You now have the weapons and wisdom to fight against this tactic. I will let you in on a little secret."

What is that Lord?

"You will always have this weakness and you will always occasionally fall. So, get over it. Be much more alert to occasions of sin, like a 50% off sale. Yes, you will do well with the prayer cards, but to tell you the truth, it's the message that touches people. Yes, in a nice wrapper is more presentable, but never compromise the message for the outer form. Your chosen lifestyle of Evangelical Poverty as the Gospels spell it out, and as I have lived it, does much more to turn people to Me. They have seen enough of the rich preachers in limousines with body guards. What they are touched by is your utter dependence on Me. Now I want to renew a new spirit in you and lift you from this dung hill. Will you please let Me?"

Oh, Thank you Lord. Thank you. At that point I was pretty wiped out, so I took a short nap.

When I returned, He began again, "Now your tendency is to brood over your failures and to be distracted onto yourself. I guarantee you that you have many demons to assist you in that, hurling lying condemnations at you constantly, to bring you back down because of your weakness. And this is how they destroy ministries. The ministers cover up for sin in their lives and cannot seem to conquer a serious weakness or bad habit. Their churches grow large and Satan exploits their weakness, sets them up for a fall and they lose everything. While your weakness is not of that kind, it still is used to make you feel guilty for not living up to a higher standard. Then your attention is not on Me but on you. This is how it is done. Don't fall for this Beloved, continue to resist temptations, especially after you have been given a major grace. Know that the enemy stalks you when a new gift is given. So now I am asking you make a major effort to put the past behind you. Do better in the future and avoid an occasion of sin. I do not condemn you; I convict you and when you respond in repentance, I lift you back up on your feet and say "Ok, let's go on from here." So, let's go on, Dearest. I forgive you; I love you; I understand that sometimes your motives are very pure but not exactly right and temperate."

And that was the end of His message to me about that.

And the message after this addresses my weakness again and the Lord's constant forgiveness it's tied into this message. Don't forget dear ones, Satan's number ONE way to stop a ministry is continually accuse until the soul is so convinced of their evil nature they abandon trying to minister. May the Lord be with us and help us, and I'm going to take a moment to thank you for your donations, they help us tremendously. We have twelve people now at the Refuge, and that's very, very sweet, they're beautiful souls, but is a job to feed them all, and things are going so well here, so God bless you, dear ones, and thank you again for remembering us. This is the time of year that we try to buy hundreds of hundreds of dollars' worth of firewood for the poor, and one of the situations that is a problem right now is the Forest Service did not issue a lot of vouchers for firewood. As a result, people are charging inordinate amounts of money for firewood. Five hundred dollars for a cord is ridiculous, the kind of wood that we need is usually two hundred a cord, and we want to buy that for the poor people because they're burning sage brush to try and stay warm, so we appreciate anything you can do to donate and help that out. May the Lord bless you and keep you in His peace and may you always outsmart the devil through the wisdom of God. Amen.

The Wilted Garden

October 14, 2020

My dear friends, please pray for me. I am still struggling with my weakness, even though I have gained major ground, there are still little temptations to conquer. I am not surprised at my weaknesses, just disgusted. This is obviously something it will take quite a bit of time to conquer. So as a result, I was wondering if the Lord would even speak to me today. I felt like He has given me so many graces and like a naughty little girl I still open myself to temptation. I feel like I have presumed on His Mercy. So, I came into adoration, feeling ashamed with my head bowed.

Jesus spoke to me immediately, "I don't want you pulling away, we are working on this gut level reaction with you. I am here, let us work on this My Bride."-- --

Just then I felt the impulse to go to my file cards and pull one, then another and another.

The first one: "Your hope will not be cut off." Well, what is my hope? My hope is that Jesus will continue to stay close to me.

Number two: "In My Divine Image I have made you." And it had a picture of a crown. So, I felt lifted up from my mud puddle. He is still with me, miracle of miracles. So, it is safe to listen and even talk to Him. Because normally I withdraw.-- --

Number three: "Haven't you seen enough of yourself to convince you that you have no cause to raise yourself up to pass judgment on others?"

BINGO! I get it. I opened the door to temptation by the sin of judgment.-- --

I get it Jesus. You are right, I have judged, but how do I handle situations that seem very toxic from the outside looking in? Especially when you mention there is lying going on.

He replied, "I expect you to come to Me and ask Me to reveal to you the details, and at the same time, pray for them to be convicted. You are a Mother, not Victim. All of you have some child in you, but your job is not to judge but to encourage and lift up, admonish and stand beside the weaker ones.

There is a certain edge of condemnation that accompanies judgment, that's where the sin lies.--You can see the sin but you have passed judgment on the sinner. That is why I must let you fall flat face down into your own mud puddle. See the sin, realize you are no better, and come to Me for answers. If you do not get the answers you are looking for, be patient and supportive with the soul. In time I will reveal much to you. Where most leaders go wrong is that they wash their hands of a soul when I wish they would stay with them. I have never abandoned you, have I?"-- --

Not that I know of?

"Well you too must never abandon a soul. Continue to pray for them. It may take a whole lifetime, but your prayers will be part of My solution, both for your state of mind and for them.-- -- I do not wish to see seeds of bitterness in My Brides. The flowers in the Garden of your soul, which I have planted, are very delicate. Bitter roots grow into Bitter Trees, bitter trees bear bitter fruit which puts out a noxious odor that can wilt every flower in your garden. Once more, this is not a little plant, it is a tree, with roots that spread into every corner of the garden, and a top that is bushy with thorns and casts shadows where there should be sunshine.-- --

Oh, do you see Clare, bitter, bitter, bitter, is judgment and it leads to death. It is deadly poison that invades a garden and will in time cause every beautiful flower and fruit tree to wither. Is this what you want?"

No Lord.

"Well, look at your garden beloved."--

And then I saw an enclosed garden that was covered with some kind of brown powder that was causing the other plants to disintegrate into slimy puddles. Once more, it was besieged by swarms of ugly flying insects, feeding on the bitter substance and transferring it like pollen from flower to flower.

Jesus continued, "That is the state of your soul right now. It has been building up bitterness because of judgment. And each time you judge, the roots get a fresh feeding which causes the tree to spread out even more and drop noxious fruit on the ground. This is a very serious state. Judgment has become a habit with you over the years. When you lived alone it was confined to a few people. But in community it is a constant irritating drip because there are so many things that transpire that have the potential to irritate you.

The answer is simple. When you see something that is not right, quickly pray for that soul and drop it. If it is a recurring problem, seek Me on how to help that soul. At the same time, bring up in your own life, something that is similar, that you did in your past. Take into consideration the person's age and state in life when you do this. Then I want you to take time, sit down, and count their virtues. When you are finished, you may be shocked at all the beauty and good you have overlooked. At least this is what I am hoping for.

I am not saying that you should tolerate sin, not at all, it does need to be addressed. But come to the soul as a sinner who has been helped by Me to overcome their sins. And encourage the soul that with Me, nothing is impossible."

As I sat here looking at my garden, things began to perk up, the ugly brown stuff disappeared and things were going back to normal.-- --

And Jesus said, "When you see the truth and repent, bitterness is burned away by the light of truth. A candle on a hilltop cannot be hidden, but virtues and gifts can be hidden and inoperative under a cover of sin. Always see others as better than yourself. Not only is this healthy, it is true. You have no idea what kind of soul you would be right now if you had gone through what another has gone through, with the limited resources they were born into. Bitterness kills, kindness brings life."

The Precipice

October 15, 2020

May the Lord's peace be with you heart dwellers. I want to share a dream with you or rather should I say a nightmare. It began just before I woke up, and those dreams usually carry the signature of the Holy Spirit, which this one did.

I was in an industrial warehouse area in a city. It was somewhat old and broken down.-- -- There were old factories and fields around as well as residential housing, and some modern, more modern factory buildings something like you would see in a larger city. The whole neighborhood was somewhat dilapidated.-- --

In any case Ezekiel and I lived there in a small flat. It reminded me of an old neighborhood in Chicago with rows and rows of three-story buildings, where each floor was rented to a different tenant.-- --

For some reason, this peaceful neighborhood turned into some kind of crisis situation. Some officials had invaded the whole area and were going from door to door checking people. It became apparent that they were detaining middle aged and retired people, grandmas and grandpas and anyone that had a medical condition.-- --

I obviously fell into the category of those they were looking for to collect together and somehow, I got trapped and they took my clothing. I had been detained in this warehouse and I couldn't see any way of escape.

All of a sudden, a homeless man came to my rescue, and he led me through the remains of a broken-down factory until he found a breach in the wall and he told me, "Run for it." I didn't have any clothes on and it was still daylight but I ran anyway. This place reminded me of where we would pick up our food to distribute to the poor. In any case, as I was running, I awoke from the dream.

My dear ones, I awoke terrified! I have had so many dreams just like this. Innocent people, perhaps on disability or elderly, retired, poor, being rounded up in a factory and detained. The people who were arresting us were some kind of new government that was over throwing the legitimate elected government.

Family, I cannot convey to you how vital this election is. There are people who have an entire shadow government, complete with uniforms, and young people with the same ideologies that are trained and ready to go into action. In short, their job is to round up the useless eaters...the sick, disabled, elderly, free thinking people and Christians, and get rid of them.--

The only ones standing in their way are the Christians and the Patriots and our President, Donald Trump. But even behind the scenes some are still taking action that has not been sanctioned by our government. Their plan is to utterly destroy the autonomy of America and turn it into another satellite nation of a shadowy world government. This plan, according to Our Lady, was first set in motion at the time of the French Revolution. The people behind it knew they would die before it came into being, but were dedicated to doing their part, in their generation to bring it about.

They have waited for centuries and now is the emergence of this beast system and the only thing holding them back is this administration and the patriots that live all over the United States, who are ready to take action into their own hands in order to protect our rights.

What I am saying is that if our president is assassinated, which is what they have been trying to do, at least 25 times already, or killed by the virus which they have also found a way to infect the White House with, if they succeed these recurring nightmares that I've been having, are what YOU are going to wake up to the next morning.

There is only one thing that will stop it. And that is prayer! Prayer, prayer, prayer. And the Lord has given me a prayer to give you in song form, so that you will remember it and pray it over and over again, to protect our nation.

I am working on it right now and hope to finish it today. But here is the basic prayer without music. "Blood and Water from the Heart of Jesus, fountain of Mercy, I trust in You to save our nation and our president."

I am still refining the words to work with the melody, so please be patient. But when I finish it and put it up as an MP3, well I'll put it up on Vimeo and you can download it as an MP3. Would you please download it, play it repetitively when you can, spread it to everyone you know, so that the prayer becomes a part of us?

My husband Ezekiel, was asked by the Lord, to pray straight through for four hours, this song, during adoration, and he said it became such a part of him that he felt united to Jesus' heart, one with Him in bringing this petition to our Heavenly Father.

Lord, have you something to add?

"I do. My people, your world has never been in a more precarious place than it is in now. This is the time spoken of in Daniel, where the whole world will be taken over by the beast system.-- -- You have fasted and prayed and been heard on high by My Father and He has extended your time ever so slightly in answer to the prayers, especially Our Mother of Mercy's prayer, "Father, please grant us more time, more grace, more mercy. Our Mother of Mercy, pray for us." Which is said at the end of every decade of the Divine Mercy Prayer by Saint Faustina, and this prayer, by the way, was given to Saint Faustina, a Polish nun, and it was to prevent World War II from happening and the Lord took her the night the war started. He would not allow this war to start until she was off the earth, and that is why in the last decade of my Divine Mercy Chaplet you hear machine gun fire in the background of the introduction to the fifth decade of the Divine Mercy Chaplet.

The Lord continued, "Now I have added this prayer to your arsenal to extend the time, grace and mercy, but you are on the edge of a precipice now and I need your prayers renewed to stop what is planned, from happening."

The extended time granted to you is conditional upon your personal and national repentance, alms giving and contrition of heart expressed in prayer as well, as casting your vote. Remember, when you vote for those who approve of killing a healthy live baby in its mother's womb, tearing it out piece by piece, when you approve of this you too will be held accountable for the crime against the innocent.

I have much good planned for you America if you will stand up, make your voice heard, not only in this nation but all the way to the Throne of My Father. I am a God of life, not death. I have no desire to impose this brutal way of life on you, but you have a part to play and unless you are faithful, I cannot bless you with what I am planning. Some are called to shout it from the rooftops, "Prepare the way of the Lord and others are called to serve their government. But you are all called to be on your knees and pray My Will be done, My Kingdom come...on earth...even as it is in Heaven."
Amen. -- --

Well here is something noteworthy, I had just ended this message and bounced it and was about to put it up and when I started to get on the internet to put it up, this rhema came up, and I really felt the Lord wanted me to read this to you.

It says, "My daughter, speak to priests about this inconceivable mercy of Mine. The flames of mercy are burning Me, clamoring to be spent. I want to keep pouring them out upon souls, but souls just don't want to believe in My goodness." And that was from Saint Faustina's Diary, Divine Mercy in My Soul.

And I just want to make a short comment about that, that this ministry of Heart Dwellers on the internet is really picking up from the base that she left with The Divine Mercy Devotion, so we are like a little satellite of the devotion the Lord gave to her. But this is the problem, people do not have the faith to believe that God will change this dire direction that we are in, that He'll change it and turn it around because "little old you" and "little old me" prayed. There is just not the faith and as a result of that, people don't bother to pray because they really don't see their prayers as being significant. That is a lie from Satan, a boldface lie to keep you from praying! I don't care who you are or how little you are, in fact the more infirm and more difficult your life, the greater the power of your prayers, because you are carrying Simon's Cross.

So I encourage you please, spread this prayer, believe in the prayer and know that God is hearing it, because I truly believe He is going to totally turn this situation around and there is a great awakening coming to this earth, because of the prayers of the people that held in suppression the evil plans of the devil for planet earth. Don't be a foolish virgin, but be a virgin with a lamp filled with faith that shines everywhere and touches people and inspires them to pray. For the Lord is hearing our prayers, dear ones, He is hearing our prayers. Spread the light of faith to everyone. Amen.

God bless you dear ones.

"O Blood and Water from the Heart of Jesus, I trust in You to save our President and our Nation."

limited resources they were born into. Bitterness kills, kindness brings life."

Honest Choices

October 17, 2020

My precious family, I want to share with you some observations I have had, and the necessity of commitment in this time and season. As we approach Halloween, the enemy's troupes are preparing all kinds of stumbling blocks for us to try and shake us from our resolve to be faithful. Yeah as a matter of fact, somebody was on our property tonight, believe it or not, out in the middle of nowhere and, a vehicle, maybe they are poaching who knows.

Anyway, I want to share with you the Lord's clarification about the Refuge and why we are here. At the present time, we are here together as a loving family working for Him in whatever way He assigns to us. That requires a great deal of detachment from everything the world values.-- -- Another thing that is required is patience, flexibility and a willingness to go the extra mile. Nobody likes being told what to do unless they have so totally forsaken themselves for Christ that they don't care what they are doing, or what freedoms they are deprived of, as long as they are in God's perfect will. And those kinds of souls work out really well here, knowing that they are supposed to be here. They can put up with just about anything.

The Refuge is not a place where we just tuck away and pray and serve those who come here so they can have all the free time they want. This is a place where necessity dictates what each must do to supply for all the needs. This is a place where necessity dictates what each must do to supply for the needs of all. So, some cook, some build, some write, some clean house, some cut wood and others run errands and go out on ministry once a week. Which we have a ministry to the local poor every other week where we deliver food and spend time with each one and pray for their needs. Some work in ministry actively from early morning until 2:00 AM, with of course their five hours of prayer. While others who are here only put in maybe two hours.

As I said, necessity dictates what each does, and although we get a good five hours of prayer free time and free time at night, with winter coming on, there are preparations to be made, like cutting wood, you know putting things in order for the winter. And I believe some people who may be retired and older are thinking of all the free time they will have when they arrive here. But although we have a few retired people, this is no place to lay back and rest. I reached the age of retirement about 12 years ago, but I consider it only the beginning of my life, because the Lord continues to give me very important work to do, and He supplies the graces, and I want to do it.-- --

We are in a war zone and our ministry is very intense. Two of us have channels which we must keep up with, and loads of correspondence. We need help with little tasks of housekeeping and sewing habits, etc. Because we are in a war zone, this is no place to retire and lay back.-- -- This is an opportunity for us to spend the last years of our lives living on fire for the Lord and doing whatever is needed day to day in order to further His ministry through us. Lord, would you please speak a few words about this?

Jesus began, "I know the hearts of each soul here, and they are all good. Yet the flesh is strong and not all want to give their all, to further My plans for this ministry on earth. My dear Brides, this is not a place of ease where you get plenty of hours to follow your fancies. Privacy for some of you is also scarce, and I know that it has been difficult. But, My Loved Ones, this is My army and we are not at Peace. In fact, we are on the precipice of destruction.-- --

Some are called here because they have ministries to the outside world, and I am supporting and protecting that because the very lives of desperate souls are being touched and saved from perdition.-- --

Others do not have ministries as yet and they have the opportunity to serve the ones that do, to make it possible for them to minister. In order that they have time to carry on with their ministries. As I have been watching the community grow, there are some who are less than enthusiastic about serving. First and foremost, this is a place of service and learning to follow, along with many--hours assigned specifically for prayer.-- --

I have tried to make it clear that this is not an end times hide away. A time may come for that, but each has a work to fulfill to keep My kingdom and agenda running smoothly. I have seen that those I have called here for certain tasks that are vital to the community's welfare, have been side tracked into jobs others should be doing. My heart is that work should be balanced and just because you are enthusiastic about helping, you should not jump and run every time there is a need.

Those of you involved in administration should not be in the kitchen, I have plans to increase venues for this ministry and because you are in the kitchen, I cannot implement them. When you see that others are not willing to step up and help and you take their place, you are derailing My plans to get the messages around the world. It is not My heart to let the messages gather dust, and those who are here and want to be served, should be looking for a retirement community, or a quiet place in the world somewhere where they will have all the free time they want.

I do not want My warriors serving those who are not enthusiastic about My Mission through Mother Clare and Mother Elisha. I will be with them wherever they go, but this is not the place to sit back and retire. I need boots on the ground filling in for the needs of others, not requiring ministers to sacrifice their ministries to do household chores and cooking for those who want more freedom.

This is boot camp my dear ones, and if you are weary from serving in the world and want your ease, you should move on and find a suitable place, rather than being an additional weight on the community.-- --

However, those who wish to stay and work hard because they love Me and want to make sacrifices of their time and energy, for this specific ministry, those I am preparing for greater things. Their love for Me has made them want to be here wholeheartedly even when it entails the necessity for longer hours and sacrifices that they were not informed of. They will learn how to reach out and serve and not be a burden on their brothers and sisters who are hard at work. Because you want to serve Me with all your heart, and you are content to work as hard as the others, and even longer hours sometimes, doing more menial tasks I will count your eagerness to serve and be part of the team as a great offering of love.

I am asking you to take a deeper look at what you want from this life, especially what you want to GIVE to Me in this life, before I take you home. If you find the requirements here, too taxing, it is best to consider another lifestyle before the winter sets in and things get very cold and restricted. I am not sending anyone away, I am only asking you to take an honest look at what you are willing to give and what you are not willing to give, and make an honest decision based on that. And wherever you go, should you decide to go, I will go with you and be with you, and you can always be a Heart Dweller.

And for the others, you have born patiently with the extra work entailed in letting new people come in, and I want to set you free from that so you can continue on with your ministries. Please My Brides, live an honest life, be forth right in living choices, by this you will find much greater peace and happiness, doing what is truly fit for you, and others who must provide for you.

And to any others who are considering coming, I would tell you ahead of time that this is a place where you must have a servant's heart and meet the immediate needs of others at times, who are involved in demanding full-time ministries. This is not an end times retreat community, this is a working, serving ministering community, and the work is hard, the conditions are hard and less than ideal. But you will know deep in your heart if you are willing to take a portion of the work on your shoulders for the good of others.-- --

In any case, I will be with you wherever you go, but be honest with your needs and requirements. This is a prayer community, with a focus on ministry and prayer and you will first be required to follow and serve before any other ministries become apparent for you to be involved in. You are greatly valued and loved and will always be a part of what happens here, even if only from a distance. Even then I will hear and answer your prayers for this community."

Without Guile

October 19, 2020

May the Lord's peace and strength be with you dear ones. I finished a song and I will be getting it up. I just have a few more things to do with vocal, but it should be up by tonight.

I asked the Lord, what was on His heart today?

And He answered, "You are always on My Heart Beloved, My desire is to draw you deeper and deeper into My Heart for the lost. But you were correct when you asked Me what I wanted to talk about and I answered you "transparency."

Jesus continued, "One of the most powerful weapons you have against the enemy is transparency with others. Why? Because when you have guile, that is to say, motives other than what you appear to have, this is actually a subtle lie and perpetuates a false image, which you then have to constantly guard and reinforce."

For instance, you noticed this morning someone came to do a chore earlier than usual. You suspected they came because they wanted to ask Father something and were impatient. You were correct. Why do they do this? They are afraid to be honest for fear of being denied their real intention."

My people, please be honest, live honestly, don't ever try to mask your real motives. This is beneath you. One thing I do not want to see is deception or posturing. Be real dear ones.-- -- There should be nothing to be guilty of in your life or communication with others. You should never mask your true motives for doing things or asking for things. If you know that something is disordered or in bad timing don't do it, wait for the proper time. If you know that something is questionable, don't try to cover it over with something more acceptable. Be honest in all your dealings.

By the way Clare, I am glad you confessed your shortcoming to Sister, when she found you at the computer during prayer time, that was honest. You should never try to look holy when you are doing something less than ideal. I want this community to be without guile. Do not ever do something you would be ashamed to be caught doing. Be honest and transparent with one another. This is not the world, this is preparation for Heaven, where all thoughts are laid bare and open to be seen by everyone. No one here should be afraid of being caught doing something they do not feel good about. And if they are, there is mercy and understanding.

Remember My loved ones, I am the One who sees everything. There should be nothing in your life you would be ashamed for others to see. That is devious, and opens the door for a habit of misrepresentation, or lying. Which also weakens you and opens the door for sin. If you know you are being held to a strict accountability, it may prevent you for sinning.

In the world and as you are growing up, you quickly learn what is acceptable and what is not.-- -- And if your behavior runs contrary to that, you will devise many ways to mask your true motives. That is being devious and, in this world, My world, in this monastic setting, you are only postponing the truth from being exposed and helped and dealt with. You see, here I want you to love one another so much that you make allowances at times for the weaknesses of others. And when you know something devious is going on, that's the time to pray for that soul.

There is no one here who does not have an issue they are less than proud of, but knowing that about one another gives you the opportunity to exercise brotherly love, because you are all on the way. A brother or sister who uncovers their weakness, can give courage to another with a similar problem, and together, praying for one another you can conquer it.

Another aspect of duplicity, is that truth is withheld from those who could benefit from knowing it. For instance, if Mother Clare does not know that a certain job is really hard for you, she cannot exercise the charity you need to overcome it or to avoid it. Making decisions about things is so much easier when you know what is best for a soul.

And all of you, leadership included, should always be very up front about your flaws and short comings lest you become hypocrites, putting on a face that doesn't reveal your real feelings and actions. On the other hand, if you are being charitable to help another even when it doesn't suit you, that is virtue, you don't want to make them feel bad for having a need. So it is best to keep a cheerful continence.

I love to see truth and transparency in My Bride. I love to see a community bending over backwards to help those who are in a difficult season of their lives or a difficult time. I love to see brotherly love exercised joyfully, and a true openness to who you are and who you are not.-- -- On the other hand, I hate devious behavior and covering over the truth. Satan will use that to lock you into a habit of lying. In the end the truth will come out and besides that, I am seeing the truth and what you are before Me is what you are before men, and nothing more.

Have courage My dear ones, I am for you, not against you. And together we will conquer the shadow areas in your lives. My Grace is with you."

Can You Deny Yourself...OR

October 20, 2020

My dear family we have had several months to get to know one another here on the mountain, and each is such a precious gift to us all. I look back on my life when I was an only child, and chose a loner type of career as a nature photographer. I spent most of my life alone, except when I was married and had children. They say that an only child can be self-centered, and I would have to agree. But the Lord has changed my perspective, first with four children and a husband, and then with a mission and a community.

While each one here is unique and highly valued, there is a certain cohesiveness, or togetherness, a sense of purpose that we all are called to share. When someone has been a loner most of their lives, or prefers to be an independent spirit, the requirements of community life that are centered around ministry can be a real challenge to their own personal needs and desires.

That is why it is wise to understand ahead of time, what the Lord's mission for the channel is.-- -- The question has to be asked, "Do I want to yield all my preferences for the Lord's agenda here in the community?" And there is no condemnation if the answer is, "No." Because you may find your mission in another work, and trying to fit a square peg into a round hole just doesn't work. This is a very good time to review our real personal needs, before the winter sets in, and ask ourselves, is this what I want? Am I happy here or is it a daily challenge that just doesn't feel right to me?

I want you all to understand, this is a very particular mission and every person on board should have a vital purpose. We cannot wrap our agenda around those who don't want to contribute in the area we need them to contribute. This is a team effort and each person needs to pull their weight and contribute according to the mission's needs, not according to personal needs.

As often happens in a community, the most responsible people who are suited to the administrative needs of the mission, also tend to be "helpers" who jump in when anyone else is not available. That is damaging our efficiency and ability to reach souls Beloved ones. Our Lives are given over to save souls, there is no time for us to go off on our own trips and neglect the necessities of the others in the community. But Lord, I would really rather that you speak about this please.

Jesus began, "Time is short, time is critical, and each of you have areas that call to you that you would rather do than other things that you would rather not do. But when you come to serve Me, I need you to abandon your own preferences, cheerfully, willingly, without grumbling, to deny yourself, pick up your cross and follow Me. Many of you have done just that, but some of you are still hanging on to your personal agendas, and that is damaging others who are saddled with the work you could have done.

I never said it would be easy to follow Me. It wasn't easy for My Mother and Joseph. In fact, it was unusually difficult since Satan was behind every bush looking for an occasion to take Me out. That means that even in Egypt, I was not free from his assaults. Time after time, Joseph and Mary suffered from circumstances arranged against them. There were many near misses, times when I could have been killed. My Father in Heaven and the Angels assigned, kept us safe, but not without a lot of wear and tear.-- --

And all of that just to bring Me to My 30th year so I could begin ministry, only to be crucified three years later. What I am saying dear ones is that we who--are working for the salvation of souls cannot allow ourselves to be dragged off into civilian affairs. We need to be supportive of those who are the boots on the ground. One who is skilled with rockets should not be in the kitchen flipping pancakes. One who is skilled with construction, should be busy making furniture, not baking cornbread. One who provides strategies should not be cleaning floors while others are depending on their instructions and prayers and waiting for them.

Yet there are times when your jobs will overlap. There are times when you are called to be flexible. Because you are in a war, you never know the next move of the enemy until I tell you.-- -- That means that your cherished plans that seemed to be so right for you and so planned out so well and the work that is set before you, may be tossed out in order to change gears and handle a situation that is more pressing.

Will you be flexible or will you complain and gripe? Will you accommodate yourself to the new plans or will you buck them and find fault? Do you see, this is what the enemy wants? In fact, when they want to make trouble, they deprive you of sleep. That inevitably causes you to become more irritated over the little things, and complaining about changes you did not expect."

Wow, forgive me Lord I can be that way.

He continued, "I am not saying that one individual should make up his mind that he doesn't want to follow the plans laid out because he doesn't want to. That is ridiculous. When you make plans that involve other people, it is best to stick with them unless something comes up that is more important.

Let Me tell you what assignments have been put on you recently: exhaustion, confusion, rejection, sleeplessness, gluttony, spiritual sloth, division, laziness, irritation, judgment, and a host of others. You are all familiar with these tactics and have been trained not to give in to them. But when you are tired or sick, you forget your safeguards. And in the past weeks you have fallen into many of these. You have come to Me to work them out and for that I am so grateful, but I want you to be more on your guard because these things, these attitudes of not wanting to do what is asked of you, has hurt others and affected My Ministry through this channel.

You have been asked to listen to the messages by Mother Clare, but some of you haven't bothered yourself to do so. As a result, you have fallen into sin and been less effective as My servants. This attitude is very destructive in the community. I tell you in advance much of what the enemy plans against you, but if you don't bother to listen you remain ignorant and fall.-- -- Each of you are very precious to Me, but some of you have not made up your mind to die to yourself, and I do not fault you for that, because I know how hard it is for you.-- --

But I am asking you to make a decision about how yielded you are going to be to My agenda.-- -- How helpful will you be when someone is needed in the kitchen and you don't feel like helping? Are you willing to drop what you are doing to get wood and water for someone in need? Are you willing to give your day to ministry when you planned to spend it in prayer?-- -- Are you willing to fill in for a sick brother or sister and do their work as well as yours? I have to call the question, are you Mine or are you yours? And a less demanding question, are you willing to give up your preferences for Mine?

I am looking at the community and seeing that there are a few situations that are weighing others down with work they should not have to be responsible for, and this is happening simply because others don't feel like pitching in, or it is an inconvenience to their agenda. That is not the disposition you must have to live in a community. Instead you should be ready to give up anything you were planning in order to make things runs smoothly so I can continue to minister. You are My backup team; you make it possible for ministry to happen and I'm counting on you. But if you feel that you're not called to that level of sacrifice, it's okay. I am with you and we will work together in another way that is more suitable for you. But please be honest and make a decision based on your past weeks of experiences while living here. I always have something more for you to do. Just because you don't fit in here does not mean you are useless; we will do other things together that are more appropriate for you. You are still very precious to me.

I love you all, and I am calling you to a higher degree of flexibility, willingness, detachment and commitment to My agenda even when it ruins your plans. I am asking you to be gracious and lay down with it. Please don't fuss and fume and spread toxins in the community that is busy trying to meet the needs of souls doing their appointed tasks. That is so debilitating and a real game stopper. It hurts those you unload on, when you should have come to Me and worked it out without getting them involved and damaging their work. Realize that Satan knows your buttons, fatigue, exhaustion, overwork, jealousy, rejection, confusion and unresponsiveness from others when you have needs. He has marked these things down and given assignments to his demons of division so that you will drive a wedge in the work and stop it, and more importantly, he wants to build up a wall of resentment and judgment between you and others.-- --

Please, please, please My People, My Servants, My Vessels unto honor, My Brides, you must be smarter than this diabolical dark angel, you must be above his tactics to stop My work. And there is one final thing I would like to call your attention to, I want you to understand that there are times when all of you feel overloaded or have interiorized your work because it takes so much concentration. I want you to communicate this when it happens, because your first response in situations like that is to brush off any intruders or additional jobs. But I want you to be transparent and simply say, "It's not you...I'm stuck right now in a very demanding situation and I'm trying to work it out, so I'm not very good company. Please do not be offended, I am not rejecting you, I am not ignoring you, I'm just in the weeds so to speak." Now if you will make that clear to one another, Satan will not whisper lies to them saying, "They don't care about your problems. See, they just use you. When they want something, you do it for them, but they really don't care to help you when you need it."-- --

Rejection is one of the worst dynamics in humankind, one of the most damaging. It goes very, very deep. What I would say is that I am in the midst of something that has demanded all My attention, but I will help you when I get free. In this way you tell the person you care but you cannot do anything about it yet. But you will.-- -- --

And finally, My chosen ones, this community is hated by Satan and his servants that live nearby.-- -- They are planning many dynamics to bring you all down and break up this community. But I tell you this, If brotherly love, patience and kindness are maintained, he will fail miserably. If he cannot get you to judge and resent another, if he cannot get you to swallow bitter seeds, he hasn't a chance and you will overcome every one of his ploys. So, hang in there My Beloved ones, you are beautiful to behold in your brotherly love. You have grown tremendously and you are bringing forth fruit you are not even aware of. Even some of the enemies are wondering why they can't cause fighting here, what is it about you that is different.

Simply, what is different is that you Love me with all your heart and mind and strength and love your brother as yourself. This is the formula to success, and because of that the enemy will deliberately attack each of these dynamics because he wants to bring division and dissolution. This is why you must listen to the messages each day, if you want to remain here. Because if you do not pay heed to what I am teaching you, you will end up leaving. I love you tenderly, I am at your right hand constantly advising you and helping you to respond in grace. And much grace has been given you. Continue to ask for it and handle it with wisdom and gratitude."

Blood of Christ I Trust in You - America-Prayer-Song

October 21, 2020

My Dear Family, the Lord has helped me put this prayer/song together with a beautiful melody, to help us pray for the President, our nation and the world which is at a critical crossroads. I wanted to make this recording better but that in fact would be vanity because this prayer is critical right now, and there's not time for bells and whistles.

I am asking you to please, memorize this song and sing it over and over again, from your heart with contrition for our sins and the sins of our nation, as well as the world. Please, please spread this song far and wide, we are covering our nation with the power of the Blood of Christ and His Mercy. If we are going to defeat evil in the land, our prayers must be strong and continuous. I wish there were a way to make it go viral, but all we can really do is recommend it to everyone and sing it. Please download it and spread it all around. Lord, have You anything to say?

"Beloved, My Mercy is without end, just as My love for each of you who are precious in My sight. This is the time to make your voice heard in Heaven.

A few years ago, My Father came very close to putting an end to the evil on this earth and beginning the tribulation. But because of the passionate prayers and fasting of so many around the world, asking for Mercy, He relented and gave us more time, more grace and more mercy.

But now it is again your turn to step up and fill the gap of intercession with your prayers and contrition for the world. There must be repentance along with this prayer. There must be a recognition from Christians that have been treading water and lukewarm, that it is time to stop living for yourself and time to take your nation's leaders seriously. Prayer moves the hand of My Father, repentance more than doubles it. Repent for your lives of excess and selfishness, your Luke warmness, and preoccupation with those things of the world that matter the least. Bring to mind this heart felt attitude when you sing this song and I promise you will be heard from on high.

We want nothing but good for you but your souls have been endangered by a short sighted and worldly lifestyle, and the things that have come upon this earth are a result of that, so that you will wake up and take your lives and your nation seriously before it is too late. I am with you and have spoken to your heart about the things in your lives that are ungodly. Now I am asking for repentance and prayer. Will you hear Me? Will you obey? Your lives, and the lives of your children hang in the balance at this hour. Make the difference that brings mercy upon the world. Sing this song, over and over again, and you will be heard."

The Song is next to be posted.

The Lyrics:

Endurance in Difficult Times & Your Gifts

October 26, 2020

The Lord bless you with His wisdom and peace dear Heartdwellers. Forgive my absence, this has been a very difficult week physically. My fibromyalgia is really acted up and I guess the weather is changing, and it just seems like everything is so much harder, kind of like wading through a swamp, chest deep in muck. Anyway, I know that it's a cross, we have all recognized here at the Refuge, that it is a cross that we are carrying for our nation and for the world right now. And the Lord confirmed that right off the bat. So, let me share this with you.

"Yes." Jesus began, "These are hard times My precious ones. Endure them with patience and fortitude. What you are lacking, come to Me and ask for the grace to endure. Those of you who dwell in My Heart are victim souls, and you carry in your hearts a tiny sliver of the burdens I feel for humanity at different times.

These now, are times like no other. Technology has united the world and given it tools to self-destruct with. The Tower of Babel has been built and man has taken much of what I prefer to control, and altered it, not having any idea of the full consequences of doing that. I cannot delay much longer Clare; man has the means to destroy every living thing. And because those who have access to these powers are being led by Satan, they have no idea how he is laughing as they draw closer to their own demise.

You see, there are those in these higher orders who control much of what takes place in the world, who have been blinded by greed, lust for power and every kind of debauchery. Satan has used their desire natures to lead them in ways that will be their ultimate destruction. He has promised them a bill of goods, one that he could never deliver, and used their own unnatural desires for every kind of pleasure, to convince them that they are moral and have a right to deprive others of life as long as it is in the best interests of their concept of evolving humanity.

They are fully convinced they are the superior race, doing what must be done to ensure the survival of the fittest and a peaceful, fully controlled world of the highest order, indulging in all kinds of lewdness. Satan has approved and encouraged this behavior while finding endless fault with Me, to the point of convincing them that I am an equal with him. I'm just the bad brother who deprives others of pleasure and gain. These people are convinced of their own righteousness Clare, they have no idea how deceived they are. Satan laughs as they dig the pit they will someday be swallowed up in and he has reserved his worst tormentors to perform unspeakable acts of torture on these very souls who have been so dedicated to him.

They really are ignorant of what they are doing. That is why I continue to ask for prayer for your enemies, they have been twisted into believing lies. They are the most pitiable characters Clare, because they have given their all to a deceitful angel, who has played them like a fiddle.-- -- --

As a result of all of this, these times are fraught with grave danger, and even though it is believed that My man will win, they do not know the price it is costing others in sufferings and sacrifices. Victim souls are not part of their theology or understanding. None the less, you are real, your suffering is real and it is being used for a noble purpose. I know it has been very difficult for you Beloved, and I thank you from the bottom of My Heart for your offerings. There will come a time, Clare, of relief, refreshing and reestablishing that which I want to do with all of your lives. But for now, I need your cooperation and holy patience as we move through these shark infested waters, holding fast to the cross I have designed for each of you."

And it is interesting the other day when Ezekiel was in a particularly difficult moment of pain, I went to my card file and I pulled the card that says "The Vineyard at Rieti" and that story is basically the people were so anxious to see Saint Francis and so excited that he had come to visit, that he could get no rest. So, he stayed in a church outlying the village and this particular parish had a vineyard which supplied them with wine for the year. When he was staying there, the peasants and the people around found out where he was and in the process of wanting to see him, they ate all the grapes and trampled the vines that the priest had. It was devastating to the priest and he was really sorry that he had invited Saint Francis to come. But Saint Francis knowing what this priest was thinking came to him and said, "What measure of wine do you get from this vineyard every year?" And he told him and Saint Francis replied, "This year you will get triple of what you usually get." And that is exactly what happened even though the vines were bare, the little grapes that they had turned out a huge amount of wine. So, the Lord knows how to repay His servants when they carry crosses for Him. He knows how to recompense us. He knows what we need and how to rebuild us, how to reinforce us and lift us up. So, we must not ever get weary with well doing, even though it's hard, because we can count on Him to restore us and we can't ever out do the Lord in giving. All we give Him, He gives back so much more in return, along with eternal life. Okay so going back to the message.

"When I allow a cross, I also equip you with the graces necessary to carry it. Always remember that and recall the circumstances of My passion and all I endured for you Beloved ones. You will draw strength from this example and when you meditate on My Cross, I am always there with you revealing the deeper things. I just wanted to address all of you and tell you how proud I am of the way you are enduring these difficult and trial filled days, and that they will pass, and you will pass through them in flying colors while aiding humanity to move in the right direction."

"You are My Simons," (He's referring to the man, Simon, who was asked to carry the Lord's cross), "You are My Simon's carrying the cross of mankind's fallen nature with Me as we pass through this threshold. I have made a way for them to be saved, and opened the gates of Heaven, providing healing waters, but you are enduring much of the same kind of torments I experienced in Gethsemane. Yes, I saw it all, every jot and tittle, and I paid the price in full for your redemption, but I am still in need of your intercession to bring this to a good conclusion.

Lift one another up, pray for one another, pursue the paths I have laid before you without hesitation. Do not allow yourselves to fall into spiritual sloth. Do what I have set before you, and you will find comfort. I have given you great gifts, each of you has these gifts. To some gifts of art, to others gifts of music, to others writing, prayer, administration and teaching, serving, all to draw My Brides into the fold, to proclaim liberty to the captives and a day of freedom from the bondage to guilt.

As you have been taught before, Satan will do all he can to cause you shame and humiliation by insinuating that you are still under the curse. You are not! I have liberated you from the things he continually accuses you of. He does this to cause you to withdraw into yourself and not live for Me or proclaim Me as I have asked you to.

My reticent ones, you disappoint Me when you refuse to pursue and cultivate the gifts that have cost Me dearly to give you. I have trusted you because you said you love Me. But if you truly loved Me you would obey Me. You would not allow the enemy to tell you how to live and how to avoid doing what I have equipped you to do. I gave you a voice because of what is inside of you. My body needs to hear that voice, there is a purpose you were born for and glorifying Me is at the head of the list. And you ask, "But how can I, a miserable sinner, bring glory to You Lord?"

I would have you consider the one who invited you here, she is in a worse state than all of you, yet she hobbles around persevering in her gifts and look at what I have done through her. She is truly a nobody and a nothing, but she does not excuse herself with this truth, she rather perseveres with My grace. She works at what she is not good at and look how I bless it. So, I am asking you to stop looking at yourself and living for yourself, stop making excuses for why you don't express your love for Me to the world.

Stop hiding. I have lifted you up with My Spirit to bring light to the world. Satan stands by with accusation after accusation to try and blow your light out. I have made it so that he cannot, but when you snuff out your wick, willingly, I can do nothing but feel abandoned and betrayed. For I have graced you with many gifts meant for My Body, but you are digging a hole and hiding them.

As much as I love you, there will come a time when you will have to answer for wasting your life selfishly on yourselves. There will come a time when your gifts are read aloud for all to hear, and what you have done and not done with them will bring you horrifying shame, nothing like what you feel now when Satan accuses you, no, true remorse for wasting your life and burying your talents.

Please My Brides, no more excuses, pick up the gifts and cultivate them. Truly, I say to you, I am expecting a return on My investments in you, and there will be a time of accounting for what you did with them. So now, I plead with you my precious ones, I know the opposition you feel, but if you love Me, you will call on Me to help you overcome it and together we will have the triumph.

So, pray, contribute, work and especially pick up the talent I gave you and work with it a little each day. I will bless your 10% with My 90% and as you continue to apply yourself, more will be given, much more, and together we will reach the world for the Lost and Hurting. I stand at your right hand, rise up I say to you, rise up! Throw off your yoke of sloth and use what I have given you for other souls. Do this because you love Me, and for no other reason. If you love Me, you will obey Me. If you say you love Me and do not obey, you deceive yourself, and the day of reckoning will come. So, throw off this yoke of sloth Satan has put upon you with your permission and rise to the occasion, I am waiting for you to prove your love by your deeds."

Well I don't know about you guys, but that really touches my heart and I can see where I have dragged my feet, and I am really resolving to change that and to work harder at the gifts He has given me, and I hope you do to. I know you don't believe in yourself, but believe in Him, because He can do great things through you. He writes beautifully with broken pencils.

So, the Lord bless you Heartdwellers and I thank you profusely for your prayers, I need them. I really appreciate them; I need them and the community needs them. And we appreciate so much your donations, they have helped us to stay stable and continue to work at what the Lord has entrusted into our hands. So, the Lord bless you greatly on this day. I pray He imparts to you great reserve strength and inspiration to move forward with the gifts that you have even during this time of trial and prayer, and hard spiritual work. And please continue to sing this song, the prayer song for our president.

Blood and Water from the Heart of Jesus,

Fount of Mercy, I trust in You.

Save our Nation, our president too.

Blood of Christ, I trust in You.

I trust in You; My God I trust in You.

Forgive our sins, the heart-of-our-land renew.

Save the world from all the wicked do.

Father of Mercy, I trust in You.

There is Joy For You

May the Lord's grace fall upon your hearts, to open them completely to this message, and may your Holy Angel remind you often of God's promises to you.

Well I would like to build a little on the last message to you. The gifts the Lord has given us, such as music, are both a challenge and a form of recreation. We live very intense lives during this critical time in the world, and for praying Christians, it is even more intense. And when we have even just an inkling that the Lord wants us to venture out into new creative channels, we can be slow to respond because of fear.-- --

In the past few messages He has stressed the importance of NOT burying our talents, but it occurred to me after I posted that message, that some of us are feeling overwhelmed because we are already very covered up in prayer and taking care of our families and we see these other things as frivolous. So, we suffer along, with all kinds of stress, diligently keeping up with our duties and do not a lot time to more re-creative, mistakenly thinking that we don't have time or they are not important. But I realized how important these things are to the Lord because He has invested us with gifts and graces. But the world and even our parents may still be lingering over our shoulders, condemning us, telling us we should be doing more responsible things with our time. And so, we continue to defer our dreams and go back to a lack luster, drag along daily existence.

The truth is, anything the Lord anoints and appoints you to do, Anything, is a responsibility, and we have to talk down these lying voices to justify spending time learning new skills or sharing our gifts which are not part of our everyday responsibilities, or so we are led to think.

But I realized how much pleasure we get from these things that God has given us the anointing to create. It is also recreation dear ones. Sometimes we are so bound up in our stress filled issues that we go to bed emotionally exhausted. But if we sat down at the piano, or pulled out our paints and did a little of that each time before we went to bed, we would go to sleep much more rested and restored, and a 20-minute nap in the afternoon can do wonders for the evening.-- --

In corresponding to these creative gifts that others may devalue, we are matching the Lord's efforts to bring forth creative things that He has gone out of His way to acquire for us. And there is joy in doing this. We tend to lose our perspective when we are dedicated in ministry or being a good wife or mother or employee. Life becomes drudgery and common place and we lose our perspective on who God has created us to be.-- -- -- --

Lord, have you anything to say? Jesus began, "My precious ones, I know your frame and the gifts in you better than you could ever know yourself, and so I encourage them to come forward, by asking you to work on your skill. It's not always a blaring trumpet to tell you that you have a skill. It's a certain kind of joy and a still small voice in your heart." I'd like to do that. "Much of the time that's the way I begin to touch your heart and prepare it to receive these gifts and to use them so that you will have the courage to step up and begin."

And here I'd like to tell you a little story as an aside. My husband is a wonderful musician, he plays the guitar and sings beautifully. And after we got married, I would listen to him and sometimes I would sing double vocals with him. But one day we were at a shopping mall and he had to go get something in the music store and I was going to sit in the car and wait because I don't like shopping malls and he left his mandolin with me and I started plunking around on it and I really loved it. I didn't know what I was doing. I just made sounds that I liked, I made them over again and sounds I didn't like I didn't repeat. And I got to know the strings and the position of the frets and I started really feeling joy, messing around with this music, but I thought this is really a waste of time, I should be praying or writing and doing something else. After all I was 58 years old and my mother always told me, if you want to be a musician you have to start young dear, you can't pick it up in your later years. But much to my surprise, not long after that, we had to house sit for someone who had a piano. One of the days we were there I thought well I'll try this keyboard and I started to play it, and my husband came in from the other room, because I have never played piano, although I had always wanted to since my teenage years. My husband came in from the other room and he said, "Honey, you really have a gift." He was amazed, and I thought, "Huh, I do?" So, we checked with the Lord, we used the Bible Promises, we used scripture readings and we very cautiously began on this journey to support my gift, and the Lord has done wonderful things with it, and it's totally Him. When I went to do Exodus for instance, He assigned angels to me to help me with the placement of different instruments. That's on SoundCloud by the way, there are several different sections to it, and it's about the story of the crossing of the Red Sea, although we hadn't quite cross the Red Sea yet.

But anyway, I just want to encourage you that the Lord will confirm to you that this is a gift He wants you to use if it is indeed His Will. So, don't be shy about asking Him and seeking confirmations.

And I also wanted to share with you, that when I first became a Christian, He really took me up in earnest about painting, and I started doing pastel portraits and I was amazed really that I was able to do that. It was all His gift to me and that's the reason why I have been able to paint the portrait of Him and of Father God. So, the Lord will give you the graces to do what He would like you to do for Him and for others. If only you would just believe. Okay back to the Lord and what He has to say.

Jesus continued, "Not only do I need the fruit that will be produced by your perseverance over a long period of time, I want to give you abundant life, I want to see you spread your wings and fly. There are secret desires in all of your hearts and I hear your most hidden musings, when you see someone particularly good at what they are doing. I also feel that cringe inside of you that responds because you feel let down, overlooked or without talent because you did not avidly pursue an instrument to play, or your voice, or an art project, or following experimental hunches with a science project.

I hear you say, "I wish I could do that" and I feel the envy in your heart, because I dwell there.-- -- But if you are working on the gifts that I have given you, to your utmost extent, these people who are accomplished will not provoke you to jealousy but inspire you to continue to hone your ability.

There is a certain joy that is imparted to My faithful ones who are working on their gifts, knowing that someday they will be able to contribute to the growth of others because they persevered. They don't cringe when they see someone who mastered an instrument, or built an energy project, rather they feel part of this world of wonder they inhabit, acknowledging that they too have the gifts, and finding inspiration in what others are doing.

So, in corresponding to My gifts to you, you not only obey, and are pursuing a dream, you are finding pleasure and an outlet from your highly pressurized life. This brings balance, calm, satisfaction and hope into your life because you are sharing with Me the life, I have given you.

How beautiful it is to see a soul who has given Me their life and does what I want them to do with their gifts in spite of the criticism from those around them. And once more, I promise that someday you will realize those goals and attain to wonderful accomplishments that feed your soul and the souls of others. For I never give a gift just for the sake of giving. I always have a targeted audience that you will someday minister to, no matter how far removed from reality you imagine that to be.

So, I am encouraging you, find joy in these gifts I am giving you. Find ways to convey the gospel message through your craft, and watch to see what I do with it. Give me your 10% and let Me give you My 90%. Do not just go to work out of guilt, go with joyful expectations that someday you will be ministering to others with this gift. Truly, I tell you, no effort of yours will go by without reward, here on this earth and later in My Kingdom of Heaven. So, rejoice and do what seems impossible to you, and BELIEVE that I am with you, sustaining and infusing you with inspiration. Why do I command you to Believe? Because it is an absolute truth, and merits your total unwavering faith. Come here now, close to My Heart, beloved one, let Me thank you with a holy kiss on your forehead. I adore you My Spouse."

Children Children

October 29, 2020

My dear family, yesterday the Lord gave me a rhema about keeping the unity and the bond of peace with each other. At the time I did not know what it was about, but later that day I became aware of a situation, that is difficult to live in until we have more space, and I believe the people involved who are there together have made monumental adjustments in their lives to get along so that it could be peaceful. But then there is always those times when we are tired or irritated for some reason. We have a short fuse and maybe we are not as kind, loving and patient with one other that we would like to be, and sometimes we just fall short.

When I got married, I got quite a shock. It seemed like he always needed to be right and I always needed to be right. I felt the need to correct and be right. A match made for the boxing ring, right, let me tell you. Now, the Lord began working with my pride and teaching me that the bond of brotherly love was much more important than being right.-- --

There are so many things we feel we must contend with others on each day. Listen to a conversation sometime, to a group of people talking and watch how some people just have to be right and have the last word. Really it is comical. I have to laugh when I hear myself try to correct the pronunciation of a word for someone, or perhaps they got their weather report from a different source, and so we disagree. I mean these are infinitely silly things.

It is a great mark of Christ likeness and maturity to let things drop when they are simply unimportant. Let others be wrong, even better, give yourself permission to be wrong. It is really quite liberating. And even more important than that, let others be right. Accept their answers, allow it to be and walk away from it, without placing any significance on your position. I have walked away from a number of conversations that I recognized were not worth the air I had to breath to speak them. -- --

Oh, how deep seated our pride is and oh how we mirror the world and its ways when we insist on being the final authority. How foolish of us to bother with just insignificant details. How foolish of us to bother with establishing ourselves in the pecking order. My dear ones, those who can maintain silence of mind and heart in challenging situations are those who are closest to Christ.-- --

When we break the bond of fellowship by bickering, we create injury to the Body. It is a terrible thing when people prefer being right over petty details rather than have peace between the brothers. How sweet it is when we are all for one another and no one needs to leverage authority and have the last word. These foolish contentions come from human pride and the father of lies, Satan himself, who loves to sow discord, divide and conquer.-- --

But Jesus said, "Blessed are the peacemakers. Blessed are the meek." To be a peacemaker, walking in the Gospel sandals of Peace, is to relinquish your right to be right, or the supreme authority. Every moment taken up with strife removes us from the sweet presence of Jesus. The devils know this well so they call up the file on your life and map the buttons. Then they do the same for the other person and plot a way to cause a split and division in the Body which can then spread to the others.

Lord, I don't feel terribly bright today can you please help me? I know we have all had to pass through times that were demanding in the sense that they challenged our meekness and brought hidden pride to the surface.

Jesus began, "Beloved children of My Heart, living together can be complete bliss or constant irritation. It is up to you to see one another as a gift worth keeping. I have brought together tender souls in this mountain forest, and although everyone agrees that there should be an abundance of brotherly love to cover those times of challenge, living it, is quite another story.

First of all, if you are not praying properly, that is from the heart, for one another, if you are not looking to your own faults and not your brothers, you are going to have a rough time and you may not survive, but end up living alone once again, doing your own thing. You must first look at the value of what has been set before you, and make a decision whether or not it is worth the inconvenience of having to yield to others at times.-- --

This is a place where we are heading for perfection, climbing the mountain of holiness to reach the summit of brotherly love. The last thing the enemy wants for you is to be living with other people who genuinely want to be holy and live for Me alone. The enemy wants you isolated so he can darken your life with depression, isolation and a sense of not belonging anywhere. The bottom line is that you belong to Me, and I wish you to have the abundant life along with other souls who have dedicated their lives to me. And certain behaviors are just not becoming of My Bride.

Souls living together and dedicated to God are Satan's nightmare. One Christian alone is bad enough, but a group that loves Me and wants to serve Me with all their hearts is his worst nightmare. So, he will try every tactic to separate brothers from one another. Children, you must be smarter than the enemy.-- --

Your first line of defense is an intimate relationship with Me. This can only happen if you truly believe that I love you and long for your company. You can make excuses and bring up your past and how wounded you are, how unfit you are, how you don't want to come before God because you are so filthy, or you can commit to changing and come to Me for the graces you need.-- --

Let's start here, do you believe that I am God and able to do anything with anyone who is willing to obey Me? Do you believe that I died to save you from your sins? If you believe that, then you must know that I truly love you, just as you are. I died to save sinners steeped in sin. So understand, I redeemed you while you were yet in sin. I didn't wait for you to be perfect. I didn't demand perfection; I took you to Myself just as you were. Not only that, but I was very aware that it would take time for you to change as you renounced sinful habits. I did not expect perfection over night, I accepted, loved and worked with you right where you were at, and that is My lifelong commitment to you. Forever.

This nagging voice that keeps you away from Me, claiming that you are not worthy, that you are too sinful, is the voice of the Devil, not My voice. So, if you continue to buy into that you are allowing Satan, the god of this world, to direct your thoughts and your life. I need you to choose this day who you will follow. Take Me seriously beloved, I am not playing around with you, I am deadly serious. You cannot go on making excuses because of your past or present sinfulness. Either you want to be Mine or you want to be your own and do what you think is best in your life.-- --

If you are not praying, coming to Me with contrition and faith that I am forgiving, there is little hope for you in this lifestyle of total surrender to My will. I am totally yours; will you be totally Mine? Will you shut down the voices that keep you from intimacy in prayer with Me? Will you send the devils running back to their pit or will you buy their lie and avoid coming to Me in prayer, knowing in your heart and believing that I truly desire company?

This is where we must begin when there is contention among believers. We must begin with the correct vision of who you are in My eyes. When you see and believe who you truly are to Me, there will be a deep inner river of peace that will avoid worldly attitudes, dissensions and quarrels. These things will be beneath you because you are in Love with Me and anything that disturbs your peace of mind and heart takes you away from Me.

I am asking you to begin here. When you see Me as your Spouse, the idea of quarreling will seem obnoxious and ridiculous to you and you will have a desire to surrender more of your rights in order to live in that peace. This inner peace is not easily disturbed by a brother or sister because it is supernatural, and not depending on circumstances around you to be maintained, other than prayer of course.

If you are biting, taring and clawing one another over foolish things, you need much more time in My presence. You need to play dwelling prayer music and believe that I am arranging the songs for the specific purpose of speaking to your heart. I anoint those songs to go deep, very, very deep into your heart and right your upside-down thinking, about yourself and others.

All of you, living together, should feel deep shame about grumbling and complaining and exercising your rights over others. This is not who I made you to be, and it's certainly not becoming of My Spouse. I brought you together to learn how to love one another, how to reflect Me inside of you to your brothers and sisters. The most spiritual one among you is the meekest one among you. Their meekness shows a deep reliance and union of Heart with Mine. It's not what you know or how eloquently you pray, or what you teach, it's totally about humility and service. How much meekness? The kind of meekness I demonstrated when I gave them My hands to be pierced with nails and fixed to the cross.-- --

So, My children, stop throwing sand in the sandbox, be kind and yielding to one another, proving that you truly are a child of the Living God, a child whom God is living inside of. I extend this grace to you now in your hearing ears. I only ask you to receive and exercise it with great piety and submission. I will be with you in this effort, and I will reward the exercising of these graces with My presence in your life."
